THE SENTINEL having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will read himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL, in preference to any other, as he can do so at the same prices as are charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

THE FAMILY OF MR. LINCOLN.—The correspondent of the Chicago Journal, relating the occurrences at the house of Mr. LINCOLN on the occasion of the visit of some of the Republican Delegates on Saturday last, has the following reference to the family of our next President:

"Mrs. Lincoln received the Delegates in the South parlor, where they were severally conducted after their official duty was performed. It will no doubt be a gratification to those who have not seen this amiable and accomplished lady, to know that she adorns a drawing room, presides over a table, does the honors on an occasion like the present, and will do the honors of the White House with appropriate grace. She is the daughter of Dr. Todd, formerly of Kentucky, and long one of the prominent citizens of Springfield. She is one of three sisters noted for their beauty and accomplishments. One of them is now the wife of Ninian G. Edwards, Esq., son of old Gov. Edwards. Mrs. Lincoln is now apparently about thirty-five years of age; is a very handsome woman, with a vivacious and graceful manner, is an interesting and often sparkling talker. Standing by her almost gigantic husband, she appears petite, but is really about the average height of ladies. They have three sons, two of them already mentioned, and an older one—a young man of sixteen or eighteen years, now at Harvard College, Mass."

NOMINATION FOR CONGRESS.—The Republicans of the Fourth Congressional District in Indiana, met in Convention at Greensburg on Wednesday last, and nominated JAMES L. YEATEE, of Ripley county, for Member of Congress. The District is now represented by W. S. HOLMAN, (Democrat,) and two years ago by FOLEY, whom the Democracy refused to return loose a second time in the deastric." Mr. YEATER is a gentleman of superior ability. He was a Democrat up to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, when he withdrew from the party, and has been a hard-working, influential Republican ever since. The Republicans are sanguine of their ability to elect Mr. YEATER.

ANOTHER DISAPPOINTMENT.—It now turns out that the man arrested at Council Bluffs and brought out to Ottumwa, supposed to be McCOMB, has deceived many persons, who thought themselves able to recognize the murderer, but the Marshal of Rockford, Illinois, who went to Ottumwa for the purpose of ascertaining, pronounces it a mistake. So the principal offender is still at large. No further particulars have transpired relative to the arrest of LAURENCE.

A LETTER from Rubicon, Dodge County, informs us that on the night of the 24th, about 12 o'clock; the grocery of F. CURTIS was broken into by a burglar, who was subsequently arrested by S. W. HERRICK, of Hartford. The letter further states that there is a regularly organized gang of villains supposed to be at or near Oshkosh, and of which this fellow was one.

RESIGNED AND QUIT THE PARTY.—Major W. D. NEELEY, one of the earliest settlers of Iowa, and for some time past a Deputy U. S. Marshal, a Democrat of the old school, has just resigned his office and declared his purpose to no longer act with the Democratic party.

A BIG CLAM was dug the other day in Provincetown, which measured fourteen inches around its centre, latitudinally, and nineteen inches longitudinally, and weighed about four pounds.

AN AGED COUPLE has just been received into an asylum at Bayonne, France; the man having completed his 108th year, and the woman being one year younger. Both are in full possession of their faculties.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—A mass ratification meeting of the Republicans of Platteville was held in the public square on Saturday evening last. A large bonfire was kindled, speeches were made, cheers given for the Republican nominees, groans given for Douglas, &c. Great enthusiasm was manifested, and the speakers of the evening were repeatedly cheered. The Chicago nominations were warmly endorsed, and the greatest good feeling prevailed throughout.—Grant Co. Witness.

A STARTLING PARAGRAPH FOR THE LADIES.—It is stated that hundreds of cases of deafness among the female population are every week brought before the leading aurists in London, who attribute them to the prevailing fashion of wearing the hair. The ear is covered and loaded with "a mass of bandoline, horse hair, wool, and other articles," by which the free current of air, indispensable to the healthy action of the auricle, is impeded, and at last deafness is produced.

THE average price of wheat in England, for the last twenty years, has only been about $1,40 per bushel, and at Dantzic about 70 cents.

The Nominations—Opinions of the Press.

NEW JERSEY.

From the Newark Mercury, (Republican.)

What a thrill of exultation quivered along the free hearts of the North at the announcement of Abe Lincoln's nomination! The people everywhere, recognizing him as one of themselves, as a man self made and self-reliant, have ratified with gladdest acclaim his indication for the first place in their gift.—There are times when the cry of the people assumes the majesty and significance of prophecy, and it is so now. Every Republican feels in his heart that victory lies as surely before us as the coming of the autumn harvests. That conviction, however, should not induce indifference, or lead to any neglect of duty. Work is essential in all campaigns, and here in New Jersey, one of the pivot States, we must at once commence our labors. Every township, village and city should have its organization, and efficient measures should everywhere be instituted for enlightening the people as to our principles and objects. The speeches of our candidate will prove the best of all documents for general circulation, and the pamphlet giving the debates between himself and Douglas in the Illinois conflict should be put at once in the hands of every man in the State. Victory is before us—let us see to it that we do our share towards making it glorious and complete.

MAINE.

From the Bangor Whig & Courier (Republican,)

BRING OUT THE BIG GUN!—Abraham of old—with reverence be it spoken—was the elect of God, and the Father of the Faithful; and Abraham, of modern times, is destined to be the elect of the sovereign people—the political "father of the faithful" of our land. We record this day, with the highest gratification, the nomination of the Hon. Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois, for the next President of the United States by the collective wisdom of the Republicans, in General Convention at Chicago.

Mr. Lincoln is every inch a man, and a man of as many inches as almost any other. It speaks the more clearly for his unsullied fame that he should receive the nomination at the hands of a Convention held in the State of his life-long residence, where any objectionable points in his character or conduct, moral or political (if there were any,) would have been easily gathered up and arrayed against him. Again we say, bring out the big gun, in honor of our "Faithful Abraham."

It will fill the hearts of the people with pride and pleasure to know that our own Hamlin, whose name and fame are as familiar to us all as household words, is nominated for Vice President. We have only time to say that the nominations are admirable, and are just what we wanted to carry the whole North, and lead the Republican party to a national triumph.

GREENCASTLE, May 18, 1860.

At 6 o'clock this evening the telegraph announced the nomination of Abe Lincoln—at 9 o'clock, while I am writing, an excellent band is sounding sweetly in the ears of Republicans; tar barrels are burning on every side of the public square; a six-pounder is booming, and shouts are shouts, long and loud, are going up for Lincoln. No man could have been nominated whose nomination would have inspired such universal satisfaction as that of Mr. Lincoln.

I have been an observer since 1840, but never saw any party so much elated at any nomination of a candidate as the Republicans are over that of "Old Abe." Bet it down that Mr. Lincoln will sweep over Indiana like Gen. Harrison did in 1840.

The Democracy are divided here, and are quarrelling among themselves. The good news from Chicago strikes terror in their camps.

Three times three for Abe Lincoln.

The Union party humbug is doing no damage here. The old bell is rusty and won't ring.

Having been a Democrat all my life, the above may sound strong, but I write what is true, and I am for Abe Lincoln.

Yours truly, J. P. E.

THE FRIENDS OF GEN. CAMERON.—The Harrisburgh (Pa.) Telegraph, the original CAMERON organ, and one of the ablest journals of the old Keystone, says:

"Mr. Seward had many warm and sincere friends among our delegation, but it was conceded by all parties that he could not carry this State, consequently Abe Lincoln was heartily supported by the friends of General Cameron, and he received the nomination by their aid. Although the friends of Mr. Cameron were defeated in their first choice, yet they have the proud satisfaction to know that they had the power to dictate the man as their second choice, and we are confident that all the true friends of Gen. Cameron will give Mr. Lincoln their hearty and enthusiastic support."

Headquarters of the Massachusetts Delegation to the National Republican Convention.

CHICAGO, May 21, 1860.

At a meeting of Delegates and other citizens of Massachusetts, Hon. Mr. Dunham of Boston, chairman pro tem, in the absence of the chairman, it was Voted, That our hearty thanks be and are hereby tendered to His Excellency, Gov. Randall, for the kind and liberal invitation to us to an excursion over the North-Western Railroad to Madison, the Capital of the State, and for his thoughtful care for our comfort and pleasure during the trip; also to the Mayor and citizens of Madison for their hospitable reception and universal efforts to render agreeable and instructive our visit to their most beautiful city, and to the officers of the railroad for their uniform courtesy and prompt attention to all our requirements and for the speed, safety and comfort of this delightful excursion.

Attest,
JOSIAH DUNHAM,
Ch'n pro tem.
JOHN S. KEYES, Sec'y.

A DANGEROUS PLAYTHING.—The little daughter of Mr. M'Daniels, in Mason county, Virginia, three years old, a few mornings since ran into the yard of the house highly delighted with a pretty plaything she had found, and was taking it to show her mother. The mother was astounded to find it a large copperhead snake! The child had one hand just below the neck, and the other about the middle, and the forked tongue of the venomous creature was projecting from his mouth in the most venomous manner.—The mother was almost frightened to death, and our informant says that she had not gotten over the fright yet. A member of the family immediately ran to the child, and, after some difficulty succeeded in rescuing it from the perilous situation without being bitten.

A VERY unusual surgical operation was performed in Worcester, Mass., on Saturday, by Dr Clarke, in a case of disunited fracture. Michael Hart was run over by the cars on the railroad about ten months since, and his arm crushed just above the elbow. The usual operation of splintering was resorted to but the bones failed to unite, and a cartilaginous union was formed, producing a false joint. On Saturday, Mr. Clarke proceeded to dissect the ends of the bone, sawed them off and fitted the ends together, joining them by silver—after which he put the arm in splinters. In this case, so far, there is a very good prospect of success, of affecting a perfect union of the disunited bone.

THE SHAD fisheries are said to be unusually successful this season. Over 1,500 men are employed in the business between Hartford and Saybrook. Five thousand were captured on Monday last, and were dispatched to the various fish dealers in New York and towns in Connecticut.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN RECRUIT.—The Ypsilanti Sentinel, late Democratic, announces in its issue of the 16th inst., that it is now Republican. It is still published by the same person in whose hands it long has been, but the political direction is in charge of the Ypsilanti Republican Association.—Detroit Adv.

THERE is now in Richmond a lad between six and seven years of age who is said to play chess with extraordinary skill. It is thought that he will soon become a rival of the celebrated Paul Morphy for the champion chess belt.

FROM NEW YORK.—A prominent merchant in Ogdensburgh, writing to a merchant in Chicago, on the 19th says: "Firing guns for Lincoln. Count St. Lawrence country 10,000 for old Abe."

MASON AND DIXON'S LINE.—The Memphis Avalanche, Democratic, says Mason and Dixon's line was run straight through the heart of Democracy at Charleston.

Destructive Fire.

The extensive Tannery of Haas, Mitchell & Stewart, of this city, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $15,000. Insured for $4,000.

Frederick Koppert, drunk and disorderly; fined $1 and costs. Execution issued.

Francis Larose, drunk; fined $1 and costs. Paid.

John Rowan, examination for embezzlement of horses. Ordered to give bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance on the 28th. Committed.

According to the complaint, Rowan came here from Chicago with a pair of horses belonging to his brother, and brought them here by the consent of his brother, to work them here, and pay his brother the proceeds. On reaching here he sold the horses, and refuses to pay the proceeds to his brother, who now makes complaint against him.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN THE SECOND WARD.—The Republicans of the Second Ward are requested to meet at KORRMANN'S Saloon, next Saturday, at 7 1-2 o'clock P. M., the 26th May, 1860.

BY ORDER OF THE WARD COM.

A WIGWAM.—At a meeting of the Central Republican Club, on Thursday evening, the following gentlemen were appointed as a committee for the purpose of raising funds and making other arrangements for the erection of a wigwam: JOHN LOCKWOOD, J. A. PHELPS, HANE CROCKER, E. D. HOLTON, EDWIN HYDE, STODDARD H. MARTIN, G. G. HOUGHTON, JOHN NAZRO, EDWIN PALMER, GEORGE BURNHAM and AVERY HILL.

Our citizens will be called on by some of these gentlemen within a few days for subscriptions to this object.

THE "J. F. POTTER."—The gun belonging to the Young Men's Republican Club is a beauty. We examined it yesterday, with considerable satisfaction and inward complacency. It is a three pounder, weighs only 500 pounds and is mounted on a very neat carriage, bearing the motto—"Let it Demonstrate." This piece of ordnance will do good service yet, and it is in good hands; the gun squad being composed of—the right sort of —live Young Americans.

LOOK OUT FOR MUSIC!—On Monday we are to have the Minstrels at Albany Hall. The company is represented as an unusually good one, whose operatic burlesques and songs, dances, &c., are superior. The Chicago papers speak highly of the troupe, and the largest and most respectable houses have attended their performances.

SUICIDE.—On Thursday evening the body of an Englishmen named JAMES BRIDGER was discovered among the hay and straw in a barn attached to the Central Hotel, on Ferry street, Walker's Point. A bottle of laudanum was found upon his person, leading to the belief that he had taken poison. He was about thirty-five or forty years old, and said to have a family residing at West Bend.

THE PRINCIPAL of the Seventh Ward High School informs us that over seventy-five scholars have been pledged, and that the High School will be a fixture. It will open on Wednesday next (28th.) The Second Ward High School is also receiving the attention of the citizens and we need have no more fear that these valuable branches of our educational system will be cut off.

TIMELY RAINS.—A heavy thunder storm, accompanied with a high wind and copious rain, passed over our city early yesterday morning. These genial showers have refreshed the earth, and the warm sunshine of yesterday afternoon following the rain, has given the brightest possible tint to vegetation.

WE HEAR that the Free Democrat has changed hands again. The spirit of the press over the river seems to suffer a mytemphysicosis that never will end. We trust, however, the present lively and gentlemanly proprietors are not to leave us.

YESTERDAY the thermometers were eloquent of Summer. Fans took the places of muffs, and soda water, such as ALLCOTT serves, was the only popular balm. The dog star will rage noon, according to our feelings.

INSPECTION.—Monday, the annual inspection of the Fire Department takes place. A parade will come off in the morning and a trial of machines after it. A good turn out may be expected.

WE ARE INDEBTED to Mr. FAXON for a very fine large colored lithograph of the Republican Wigwam at Chicago. It is for sale by TUNIS & Co., on Wisconsin street.

THE same jam attended VAN AMBURGH'S Show yesterday. Better tumbling, riding, or joking, we have not encountered in some time.

CALEB WALL has an extensive sale of dry goods and furnishing goods on Wednesday, May 30. See advertisement this morning.

Re-opening of the Public Schools.

The Public Schools will re-open, for the Summer term, on Monday next. The two High Schools, in the Second and Seventh Wards, will be under the charge of the present Principals, Messrs. LARKIN and MCKINDLEY, who confidently appeal to the former patrons of these schools to sustain them in this enterprise. The Ward Schools will be maintained, as heretofore, out of the fund raised by tax in the City, with our quota of the State School Fund. The term will close on the 3d of August. All pupils desirous of obtaining seats for the term should be present at the schools before 9 o'clock Monday morning.

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM.—Now's your time. When the season grows old and the keen edge of freshness is dulled you will not value them so much; strawberries in fine are like fortunes in youth. The little pods of nectar are never so red or so delicious afterwards. They are made of spring dew, the condensed toughness of May and the freshness of April showers. Perhaps you remember in your juvenalistic days (excuse the istic) how you picked them yourself at the season when the cows came home with their white ancles all dabbled with the precious gore. How you loved a country girl, just because her lips looked like two strawberries hanging out of her mouth for somebody to taste, and how she had a strawberry mark on her left arm. Every strawberry in fine, is a reminiscence. Perhaps it would be well to state in this connection, the equally romantic fact, that H. W. GEORGE keeps these little things for sale and receives them fresh from Cincinnati every day.

SOLEMNIZATION OF THE FEAST OF PENTACOST IN THE GERMAN LUTHERAN TRINITY CHURCH.—Sunday (May 27th,) at 9 o'clock a. m., sermon by the Rev. F. LOCHNER. Text: St. John 14:23, 31. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, a sermon by the Rev. A. BROSE. Text: St. John 14:16, 17.

Monday, (May 28th,) at 9 o'clock a. m., a sermon by the Rev. F. LOCHNER. Text: Acts 10:42, 48. In the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, a sermon by the Rev. F. STEINBACH. Text: St. John 3:16, 21.

Tuesday, (May 29th,) at 9 o'clock a. m., a sermon by the Rev. CHARLES KRENZLEIN. Text: St John 10:1, 11.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN wishing a nice oil for dressing the the hair, will not fail to try an article of Lustrale manufactured by J. M. ALCOTT, druggist, opposite the SENTINEL Building. Call for his Eau Lustrale.—It is the best for softening and perfuming the hair, that we ever used.

FOR PORT WASHINGTON, SHEBOYGAN AND TWO RIVERS.—The steamer Cleveland, Capt. FISH, leaves here every evening, at 8 o'clock, for Two Rivers and intermediate ports.—Until recently, she started every morning, but travelers will bear in mind that she now leaves OLMSTED'S dock at 8 o'clock in the evening.

THE SECOND WARD HIGH SCHOOL.—Recitations will commence on Monday morning, and all students who desire to attend during the Summer term are requested to be present. We shall endeavor to make arrangements, financially, to accommodate all who wish to enjoy the benefits of the school.

E. P. LARKIN, Principal.

BASE BALL.—The first nine of the Milwaukee Base Ball Club plays a friendly match, this afternoon, against the field, on Fair Grounds, Spring street hill. Members of the Club, desirous of participating in the game, are requested to be on hand punctually at 3 o'clock.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

ABRAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN,
OF MAINE.

Seward and Lincoln.

GOVERNOR SEWARD comes promptly and heartily to the support of MR. LINCOLN, as those who knew the illustrious Statesman of New York, doubted, for a moment, that he would. The following article, written by GOV. SEWARD himself, appears in the Auburn daily Advertiser, published at his own home, where MR. SEWARD has been spending a few days:

We place the names of LINCOLN and HAMLIN at the head of our columns, with pride and satisfaction. No truer expression of the Republican creed could be given, than the platform adopted by the Convention contains. So truest of true defenders of the Republican faith could have been found in the Union, than the distinguished and esteemed citizens on whom the honors of the nomination have fallen. Their election, we trust, by a decisive majority, will restore the Government of the United States to its constitutional and ancient course. Let the watchword of the Republican party, then, be Union and Liberty, and onward to Victory.

In our telegraphic columns yesterday, we published the generous and eloquent letter written by GOV. SEWARD to the New York Committee, warmly commending the Republican candidates and platform to the united and cordial support of the Republican party. The white plume of this gallant favorite statesman still leads the van, and now, as heretofore, will wave above the Republican ranks in the thickest of the fight.

A Sad Look Ahead.

The News of yesterday favors its readers with the following extract from a private letter written "by an intelligent and thoroughgoing Democrat of Pennsylvania," whom the News vouches for as "familiar with the politics of that State." The News adds that what the writer says of Pennsylvania "is true of all the Northern, if not of all the Southern States." Let us hear, then, from Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, May 23, 1860.

MY DEAR F. * * * * * * *

I am on my way to Providence—return to Pennsylvania in a week. I have nothing new—Lincoln's nomination is not hailed by the Seward men in this State, and opposition is gaining. If Douglas be nominated, he may carry Pennsylvania and New York. Public sentiment in Pennsylvania is powerful for Douglas, but the politicians are all against him. Douglas is the only Democrat that can be elected. The demonstration in Pennsylvania when he is nominated will be great, and so here. I am for the Southern men will come back to the Convention and form "the politicians will nominate and the people will ratify." If Douglas is defeated in Convention, the Democracy is used up.

In other words, this "intelligent" and well-posted Democrat is unhesitatingly of opinion that DOUGLAS will be defeated either in the Convention, or out of it. If he is nominated at Baltimore, then "the politicians" will defeat him. If he is defeated in Convention, then the Democracy are "gone up."—So says this oracle, which the News makes haste to vouch for to its readers. There may be something very encouraging to the Bell-Everett men in these prognostications, but we don't clearly see it.

The State Hospital for the Insane.

The Trustees of the State Hospital for the Insane met at Madison on Wednesday last, to select a Superintendent. There was much diversity of opinion among the members of the board as to the right man for the place. Ultimately the choice fell upon DR. CLEMENS, of Shopiere, Rock County, who was not a candidate for the post, and is selected solely on the ground of his superior qualifications. DR. CLEMENS is spoken of as a man of experience, energy and high character. He was formerly connected with the Insane Asylum at Brattleboro, Vermont.

The Trustees fixed the salary of the Superintendent at $1600 per annum; that of Assistant at $800; and that of Matron at $400. The office of Steward was abolished, the duties devolving upon the Superintendent.

Prior to adjourning, the board adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the election of a Superintendent for the Western Hospital for the Insane, in place of Dr. J. Edmund Lee, whose term of office expired by the act of the Legislature re-organizing the Board of Trustees, we are actuated by no want of confidence in Dr. Lee, and that we cheerfully concede his ability and peculiar fitness for the post he occupied, as a gentleman of ability, high professional character and liberal education, and that he leaves us with our entire respect for him as a gentleman of strict integrity, and unimpeachable moral character.

NEWS FROM THE WEST.—The Prairie du Chien Courier, a very zealous organ of Sham Democracy, informs its readers that the Republican Convention at Chicago, nominated a candidate for President "who is decided in opposition to the avowed policy of the Republican Party," and adopted a platform "that even the most ultra Southerner cannot object to." If this be so, the Chicago Convention was remarkably fortunate. It is very certain that Republicans everywhere look upon Mr. LINCOLN as an able and faithful representative of Republican principles; and if the "most ultra Southerner cannot object" to our Platform, we may reasonably anticipate a tolerably unanimous vote, North and South, for our cause and candidates.

A PRINTER FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.—HANNIBAL HAMLIN commenced life as a farmer boy, and afterwards became a printer, and continued "setting up type" till he commenced the study of the law. He was admitted to the Bar in 1833, when he was 24 years of age.

LINCOLN and HAMLIN, alike in many points of character, and within a few months of the same age, both arose from the humble, but honorable occupations of working men. Both commenced life on the farm; both sprung from the working people; both struggled through a youth of work and difficulties to an honorable manhood; both have been the "architects of their own fortunes;" both are emphatically "self made men."

It is such men the people love to honor. Two Farmer boys of 1809, will be at the head of the National Government in 1861!

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—CURIOUS FACTS.—It is a little remarkable that the last syllable of ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S first name and the first syllable of his last name, when put together, make the name of his associate on the ticket for Vice President: ABRA(HAM LIN)COLN. It is also a curious fact that the first syllable of LINCOLN, is the last syllable of HAMLIN.

There is a singular "fitness of things" about these two names. For instance, beside the above facts, we have the name HAMLIN by combining the first three letters of LINCOLN'S with the three first letters of HAMLIN'S name; and the last syllable of LINCOLN'S, make LINCOLN.

There is evidently a power in these names, even as there is in the men themselves and the cause they represent.

THE LIBERTY OF CHOICE.—In regard to the unfortunate use of the word "ominous," when speaking of the N. Y. Herald's new born zeal in behalf of DOUGLAS, the News offers the following highly satisfactory explanation:

Now, where we use a word which admits of a double meaning, it is for our readers to choose between them.

We congratulate the readers of the News upon this happy privilege of judging for themselves what that double-tongued organ means.

"THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM IN BOOTS."—The Springfield (Mass.) Republican gives a most felicitous definition of "Honest Old Abe," the Presidential candidate of the Republican party. It says: "He will make what we have not had lately—an honest President. He is neither a trickster nor a time-server, but a straight-forward, manly, able man, who believes in the principles he represents. He is in fact the Republican Platform in Boots. God bless him and give him victory!"

The Ratification at St. Louis.

The Republicans of St. Louis held a glorious Republican meeting on Tuesday evening last. The Democrat says that it was attended by the largest number of people ever present at any political gathering in that city; and that up to ten o'clock at night it continued to grow in bulk and enthusiasm. Mr. F. P. BLAIR, Jr., was the principal speaker, and he was most heartily applauded. The Democrat concludes its account of the meeting in these words:

"The report of the proceedings will be found elsewhere, but we will remark that the spirit evinced by the various speakers was of the most decided order. There was no lowering of the tone, no apologizing and no explaining. On the contrary the standard was full high advanced. Excelsior was the motto of each successive speaker. The bugaboo of the irrepressible conflict had no terrors for the audience or the orators. When Mr. Blair, who was unusually happy in his remarks, quoted Washington in defence of Lincoln's declaration, that the house will cease to be divided—the greeting with which it was received attested the intensity of the sentiment of freedom cherished in this community.—The quotation to which we refer, was from one of Washington's letters to Lafayette, in which he expressed the hope that the confederacy will be yet composed of free States exclusively. We have heard the number present estimated as high as fifteen thousand, but we may safely say there was half that, at least, and probably ten thousand. However this may be, the whole affair was a splendid success, and has inspired the most auspicious presentiments, both in regard to the result of our local contest in August and the general contest in November."

THE MOUNTAIN MUST GO TO MAHOMET.—The Savannah News indignantly spurns the proposition that the seceding delegates should go the Baltimore Convention, or that others should be appointed in their stead for that purpose. It says:

"Having withdrawn from the late Convention after due notice and for good cause, and having resolved to meet at Richmond, where all who are willing to do us justice are invited to come, the Southern States should be represented at Richmond on the second Monday in June, and adhering to the majority platform, the Convention should proceed to nominate candidates acceptable to all Democrats who are willing to stand on that platform. If then, the Baltimore Convention, are willing to recognize the constitutional rights of the South—if they desire the unity and nationality of the Democratic party and the perpetuity of the Union itself, they can ratify the action of the Richmond Convention without humiliation or dishonor.

On the other hand, it will be plain to every mind that the South being the party aggressed upon, cannot now accept the terms dictated at Charleston, nor surrender the position of self-defense assumed by her delegations, without danger and disgrace."

JUDGE KELLY AND MR. LINCOLN.—On Saturday a number of the Republican delegates went down to Springfield to call on their nominee. The correspondent of the Chicago Journal in noting the proceedings at MR. LINCOLN'S house, relates the following pleasing incident:

"Tall Judge Kelley, of Pennsylvania, was then presented by Mr. Ashmun to Mr. Lincoln. As they shook hands, each eyed the other's ample proportions with genuine admiration—Lincoln, for once, standing straight as an Indian, and showing his tall form in its full dignity.

"'What is your height?' inquired Mr. Lincoln.

"'Six feet three; what is your's, Mr. Lincoln?' said Judge Kelley, in his round, deliberate tone.

"'Six feet four,' replied Lincoln.

"'Then,' said Judge Kelly, 'Pennsylvania bows to Illinois. My dear man, for years my heart has been aching for a President, that I could look up to, and I've found him at last in the land where we thought there were none but little giants.'"

THE HONEST MAN.—The Newark Daily Advertiser, a journal whose sterling worth secures respect for its opinion every where, speaks of MR. LINCOLN as follows:

"No calumniator has wagged his envenomed tongue against his name. On the contrary, we hear him spoken of as 'Honest Old Abe.' This homely title is eloquent in his favor, reminding us of that other honest statesman, long since dead and gone, whom we have nevertheless not quite forgotten—'Honest JE Davis.' The soubriquet speaks volumes in praise of our candidate.—We wish nothing better than honesty in our future President, and we wish nothing less, especially at this time of execrable want of integrity in high places, aye, in the highest places. Honest men were never so needed in public places, as they are now. Public men generally have talent enough and to spare, but in the quality of honesty they are, very many of them, miserably deficient. The consequences we see every day."

HOW THE JAPANESE PAY BARBERS AND PORTERS.—On Saturday one of the second class officers went into a barber's shop, near the hotel, in order to have his tonsure fresh shaven, which was accordingly done, and quite to his liking. On leaving, he paid the barber, in strict accordance with tonsorial prices in the Empire from which he came, taking from his pouch and placing in the hands of the barber one copper cash, eight of which are equal to one cent. So doing he walked leisurely away.

In his anxiety to show his gratitude, one of the Japanese bestowed a handful of Japanese coin on an Irish porter, who had handled the baggage. Pat was at first at a loss to know what to do with the money, but in an instant the curiosity-seekers, who witnessed the incident, were buying him out with quarters and half dollars, until he was showered with enough to pay the next month's rent.

THE SEVENTEENTH annual session of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America, will be held in Portland on the 7th of June next, and will continue about one week. About 150 representatives are expected from all the States in the Union, and from the British Provinces. On Friday evening, June 8, a reception meeting will be held in the new city hall. On the following Monday evening, June 11, a grand banquet will be given the National Division at the new city hall, by the lady visitors of the order in Maine. On Tuesday, June 12, there is to be a great out-of-doors demonstration, with procession, music, banners and speeches. On the final adjournment the Grand Division of Maine have made arrangements to take the members of the National Division on an excursion to the White Mountains.

REMOVAL OF TOLLS ON THE WELLAND CANAL.—We understand that the scheme of removing tolls on vessels passing through the Welland Canal, has been consummated by the Canadian authorities, so far as vessels bound to Canadian ports or on ocean voyages are concerned. Orders have been given for the free passage of all such craft, and are already in effect. The new policy was inaugurated last Monday. The object is to divert American trade to Canada. How far it will be effectual remains to be seen.

THE TURF.—The Memphis Bulletin states that the challenge of the Messrs. DOSWELL, of Virginia, to run their celebrated "Planet" against any other named horse in the United States for $20,000, has been accepted by Messrs. JACKSON & CHEATHAM, two well-known turfmen of Tennessee, and owners of "Daniel Boone." The race will come off, if the challengers take up their offer, at the fall meeting over the Ashland Course, Virginia.

ONE of our New England cotemporaries, in a rather poetical flight, says "time is about to turn over a new leaf in the book of the Democracy." Then, we guess it is the fly leaf at the end. By the way, if the Democracy is a book, it must be an almanac, for its positions are calculated for all meridians, and changed every year.—Louisville Journal.

BRONSON'S (Catholic) Review predicts the decline of the Catholic Church on account of inferiority of intellect, and remarks that it is not growing by conversions as rapidly as it is diminishing by preverts; and, further, that no work of any merit, from the best Papal pen, can command more than 2,000 or 2,500 sales of copies.

LOCATION OF THE POST OFFICE AND COURT HOUSE.—The Post-Office and Court House has been located on the lot occupied by Mr. Mills' dwelling house. This is decidedly the most convenient and suitable location in the city. It adjoins the fine new building of Messrs. Hasbrouck & Gurnee, and is on the opposite corner to that occupied by the Capital House.—Madison Patriot.

The Slaver Firefly at Key West—Five Hundred Negroes on Board—Description of the Vessel—Revolting Scene—More Slavers Afloat.

Extract from a letter, dated Key West, May 2, from a gentleman there to his friend in Cincinnati.]

I have before stated that the Mohawk is in this port, and has lying under her quarter a most beautiful bark called the Firefly, having on board upwards of five hundred negroes, just from the coast of Africa, which she captured in a calm off Neuvitas, about three days ago, and brought in here. I have just returned from a visit to the slaver. It was a sight which those who have not seen can form no idea of whatever. It was disgusting and abhorrent to all the senses. In the first place your nose was offended by an infernal stench that pervaded the craft throughout; then your ears were filled with a continual chatter that resembled more the babble of a thousand monkeys than the language of human beings; and as to the eyes!—Well, as we came alongside, perhaps eighteen or twenty "woolly heads" greeted us with loud clamor, and upon ascending the side ladder we saw about one hundred and fifty little black children lying and standing around upon deck, the greater portion of them in a state of absolute nakedness. The women, who occupied the cabin, were ordered on deck for our inspection, and it was a horrible sight to see the poor creatures make their appearance in every stage of emaciation, disease and misery.

A single glance at the "slave deck" was sufficient to fill the mind with ineffable horror at the thought of what the poor creatures must have suffered in the passage of twenty-eight days. The deck was constructed of rough, unplaned planks, raised from the ship's bottom about three feet, making a space about four feet in height, and extending fore and aft, the length of the vessel.—In this black hole the poor creatures were huddled together. Thirty-four of them had been sent ashore sick, and will probably die. I noticed one little black boy, lying on deck, perfectly nude, and apparently unable to move hand or foot; he could only cast imploring glances around, too expressive to be misunderstood; but no one paid attention to them. The scene was altogether horrible beyond description.

The Firefly is a bark of about 300 tons, built evidently with a view to speed; she has a beautiful bow and run, her spars are very tall and yards unusually square, spreading a great deal of canvass. It is said she has twenty thousand dollars concealed somewhere on board, but the officers of the Mohawk have not as yet been able to discover it.

I must mention that the condition of these wretches has been much alleviated since their capture. They are permitted to come on deck, and are obliged to pay some attention to the cleanliness. To-morrow they are to be landed. I suppose the vessel will be sold, and with her value, together with the Government allowance of $25 a head for each negro to the captors, to Mohawk's officers and crew will earn considerable prize money. It is known that three vessels (slavers) are at this time expected to arrive on the coast of Cuba; and it is reported that two large steamers, with each 1,200 negroes on board, are on the way for the same destination, besides a number of smaller vessels. There is prize money for somebody in the wind.

Another Important Capture of a Slaver with Five Hundred and Sixty Slaves on Board.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.

KEY WEST, May 13.

The United States steamer Wyandotte, Lieutenant Commanding Fabius Stanley, arrived at this place last night from the south side of the island of Cuba, having in custody the bark William, of Baltimore, with five hundred and sixty African negroes on board. The William was direct from Africa, and was about landing her cargo of humanity when she was pounced upon by the little steamer Wyandotte and her gallant crew. The negroes are all young, but greatly emaciated by their inhuman treatment and close confinement, during the voyage from Africa. This is the second capture made within a very short space of time, and they certainly speak well for the little United States steamers Wyandotte and Mohawk and their gallant crews. When the Williams' cargo has been landed at Key West, the United States Marshal will have over one thousand Africans under his care.

The bark William exhausts her supply of food to-day and will probably discharge her cargo at the African depot to-morrow. She had been in communication with the land, and had on board a Spanish custom house official at the time of capture.

The quarters just finished for the cargo of the Wildfire, will possibly house this new accession by close stowage, but there is a want of lumber for further extension, as well as a supply of provisions. If this new impetus towards the suppression of the trade shall be increased by the proposed bounty of $100 per head, we may look for other captures, and it will then become a matter of policy and humanity to have the slaves afforded every convenience and comfort for health, preparatory to their leaving for their return voyage. This is a matter that requires immediate attention by the government.

P. S.—Another slaver, under Spanish colors, is reported to have been captured by a Spanish war vessel, in the vicinage of the place where the bark William was seized.

A Republican Club in Union College.

Correspondence of the Evening Journal.

UNION COLLEGE, Schenectady, May 21.

Pursuant to call, a large number of students assembled at the Eagle Hotel for the purpose of organizing a Republican Club.

The meeting was called to order, and Mr. S. R. Thayer was elected temporary Chairman, and Weston Flint Secretary pro tem.

Upon motion, a committee on permanent organization was appointed by the chair, and the following persons were reported and unanimously elected officers of the Club:

President—S. R. Thayer, of Senior Class.

Vice President—Wm. C. Marcy, of Senior Class; Chas. C. Smith, of Junior do.; John C. Graves, of Sophomore do; Edward Cary, of Freshman do.

Recording Secretary—Weston Flint.

Corresponding Secretary—John M. Bailey.

Treasurer—John A. Barns.

Constitution and By-Laws were adopted.

Eloquent and enthusiastic speeches were then made by various members of the College, fully endorsing the Republican Platform and the nominees of the Chicago Convention.

The Republicans of Union College, although young and inexperienced in political warfare, are determined to battle for the right, and for the triumph of constitutional principles.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Smith and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That while we should have most enthusiastically received the nomination to the Presidency of New York's favorite son and highly finished scholar and statesman, WM. H. SEWARD, whose name is enrolled upon the list of the most honored graduates of Union College, and whom we, as students, most especially revere, we yet heartily endorse the Chicago nominations, and will labor zealously for the election of ABRAM LINCOLN and HANNIBAL HAMLIN to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the Union.

ALEXANDER DUMAS had left Paris, at last accounts, for Marseilles, to start on his voyage in his little steam yacht Monte Christo. He takes with him five companions, one a professed photographer, three compositors, a pressman and a press, so that the records of his voyages will be printed almost as fast as they are written. The trip will last fifteen months, and M. Dumas expects to write and print two volumes per month.

The Empress' Ball.

From Galignani's Messenger.

The splendor of the scenes presented on Tuesday night at the bal costume given by the Empress at the Hotel d'Alba, and which, for the last few weeks, has been the great topic of expectation, was such as has scarcely ever been surpassed. The Emperor made his entry shortly after 11 o'clock in a black domino, which he only removed during the evening to substitute for it a blue one. The Empress, who arrived soon after, was attended through the rooms by Prince de Metternich. Her majesty also wore a domino, which, to the general surprise of all, she never took off, report having affirmed that she was to appear as Dina, the Huntress.—Her Majesty only remained a short time. The costume of the Princess Mathilde was of the most unusual description, as the texture of her skin was completely darkened to represent a copper-colored Indian, and to suit a curiously picturesque attire, lightly fastened together. The Princess Clothilde showed exquisite taste in a more charming costume of a Bergere in the time of Louis XIV. Prince Napoleon appeared in a domino. The guests were received by the Duke and Duchess de Tascher la Pagerie, whose courtesy and attention were unceasing.

Dancing commenced early, and continued throughout the night, but three quadrilles in particular stood out in bold relief for their beauty and originality, and the costumes of which had been previously arranged. In the first were represented the characters of the fairy tale which delighted our childhood, Puss in Boots; the second was composed of the favorite personages of the Italian Carnival, such as Punchinello, Harlequin and the rest; while the third, in which the four elements were attempted to be personated, gave to the admiring spectators one of the most lovely sights ever presented in the ball-room. The Countess Walewski represented water, being dressed in Undine. She wore a coronet of diamonds and opals. Behind floated on her shoulders marine shrubs. Air was personified by the Countess of Morny, who wore a head-dress of diamonds with wings at the sides, her hair being powdered with silver, while behind were to be seen light pinions. The Princess Swiskowska represented earth. Her head-dress was composed of a crenelated tower in gold, ornamented on one side with a cornucopia from which fell flowers and fruits. Fire was represented by the Princess Czartoriska, daughter of Queen Christina; she wore a diamond of flames of gold, and flames of the same metal were interminged with her hair. In each quadrille the ladies were dressed nearly alike; and in addition to the leaders mentioned above were to be seen the Countess de Persigny, Madame Nierabitowska, and Mademoiselle Sivewheft, the Princess de Metternich, Madame Nievdrzecka, the Countess de Portales Labedevere, &c.

The last named quadrille was composed solely of ladies, four for each element, and each four being dressed alike, with almost the sole difference that the display of diamonds and precious stones was somewhat greater. But such was the admiration excited not only by the richness of the costumes, but by the beauty of the ladies who took part in it, that a universal supplication arose for a repetition of the dance, and the request was most kindly acceded to.

At two o'clock the curtain which hung between the pillars of the garden corridor was raised, and presented a sight, the magnificence of which could scarcely have been imagined, unless in beholding some picture by Paul Veronese. This was the banquet hall, which to that hour had not been opened. The corridor led on to galleries, which extended down both sides of the hall. At the farther end, scenery had been arranged so as to vanish into distance; a fountain sent up its waters in the foreground, and on them an electric light was so adjusted as to give the watery spray, as it rose and fell, the appearance of frosted silver.

The scene was most beautiful, and called vividly to mind those abodes only read of in the Arabian Nights. The center of the hall was reached by two wide staircases, and in its wide expanse were disposed twenty tables, glittering with plate and crystal, and covered with a supper of a most sumptuous description. The attendants consisted solely of pages attired in a costume of the richest kind—silk, velvet and lace—of the sixteenth century. A party of musicians, also dressed most gorgeously, played during the supper.

The Emperor sat down at one of the tables, but did not remove his mask, even while taking refreshment. Eight ladies were seated near him; the Countess da Morny at one side, and the Countess Walewska at the other. At the supper table of the ladies of the Court were to be seen the Princess Clothilde and the Princess Mathilde. As soon as the first party of guests had withdrawn, another descended, and so continued until all that pleased had supper. Dancing was resumed, and the fete did not terminate until 6 in the morning.

The Irish Exodus to the United States.

From the London Times, May 3.

The Irish emigration still continues at a rate which threatens results far beyond the calculations of the economist, perhaps even the wishes of the statesman. It is no longer the overflow of a vessel full to repletion, but the operation of a syphon which drains to the very bottom. If that syphon may be regarded in any visible form, which, in the eyes of every Irishman, appears to have one common terminus across the Atlantic, the sad trains of hopeful, if not happy, faces going off to the Land of Promise, from which friends and relations have sent not only invitations, but the means of accepting them. A train starts to catch an emigrant vessel as regularly as in England to catch a steamer across the Channel. The emigrant ships have no longer to peep into every little port to pick up their passengers. They assemble at Cork, and pass in a continuous stream, if it may be so called, across that ocean which, wide as it be, is easier to an Irishman than the gulf which divides him from England.—At present it cannot be said that there leaves Ireland as much as the natural increase, but the causes in operation are not unlikely to make it exceed that rate.

As the small holdings are thrown into larger, and the farm grows to the English scale, there must be numbers everywhere bred to the occupation of land, and with all the ideas adapted to it, but unable to get holdings that will require little or no capital. They go across the Atlantic as a matter of course. Brothers, uncles and neighbors have gone long before, and send not only good news, but the substantial pledge of its truth in the shape of orders on Irish banks.

If this goes on long, as it is likely to go on, Ireland will become very English and the United States very Irish.

From the Liverpool Journal, May 5th.

There can now be no question that the exodus from Ireland this season is likely to be as marvelous in its extent as that which followed upon the terrible famine of 1846-47. The provincial papers teem with the subject, and the farmers remaining at home have taken alarm at the almost certain prospect of a scarcity of laborers and the consequent enhanced price of labor. This emigration panic is to be traced to the simple fact that every mail from America brings large remittances for passage and outfit to relatives in the old country, who, of course, are willingly tempted to better their condition in a country which offers a larger field for industrial enterprise.

RESTORING DAMAGED VELVET.—The Moniteur de la Salud publishes the following method of restoring velvet to its original condition. It is well known that when velvet has been wet, not only its appearance is spoiled, but it becomes hard and knotty. To restore its original softness, it must be thoroughly damped on the wrong side, and then held over a very hot iron, care being taken not to let it touch the latter. In a short time the velvet becomes as it were, new again.—The theory of this is very simple. The heat of the iron evaporates the water through the tissue, and forces the vapor out at the upper side; this vapor passing between the different fibres, separates those which adhere together in hard lumps. If the velvet was ironed after damping, an exactly opposite result would be obtained: it is, therefore, necessary that the substance should not come in contact with the heated iron.

ORIGIN OF TAR AND FEATHERS.—Charles the Sixth, of France, gave a masquerade, in which himself and five courtiers disguised their persons to imitate satyrs, by covering their naked bodies with close linen habits, which habits were then to be smeared with resin, on which down was stuck all over.—One of the company, in a frolic, touched one of these satyrs with a lighted torch as they were dancing, in a ring, the consequence was all the six masques or satyrs were enveloped in flames instantaneously. Four of the six died immediately, and the King never recovered from the fright and disorder, occasioned by the accident.

Letter from John C. Heenan.

From Wilkie's Spirit of the Times.

LONDON, May 5, 1860.

DEAR SPIRIT:—I am happy to inform you that I am very well, and the little scar I got under the eye is almost entirely gone. In a week or more no one would suppose for a moment that I had been hit at all. I need not say anything to you about the manner in which the fight was brought to a conclusion—only this, I have no fault with Sayers for anything that was done. It was natural that he should avail himself of every opportunity that offered to save his belt and his hard-earned reputation; but there are others whom I hold responsible for depriving me of what I earned, and all that I am sorry for is, that there is no earthly way in which I can get redress. I am entirely in the hands of the referee, and he says Sayers had a right to be relieved when I got him "in chancery," so he gave him two months to get his wind and come to time. Rather a long spell! This, I think, should be the newest of what is called the new rules of the ring.

I am glad to say, however, that, through the determination of Mr. W., I have got a day set for a new battle, but I cannot mention it at present, as it would come back here in time to interrupt the meeting. In the meantime, I think I shall go over to Ireland to train, or to some place at any rate where I shall not be harassed as I was before. They gave me a pretty rough time of it with their warrants and notices to quit, and I want no more of that kind of exercise. I must say, however, that I have but little faith in being able to get the belt, though I have the most perfect confidence in being able to win it in less than half an hour. The persons who were willing to bet 100 to 40 against me before, will not let me have it under any circumstances, and it must not be forgotten that Mr. Dowling, who showed me so much favor at the last fight, is locked up to by the boxers here as the natural protector of the trophy of Old England. There are a hundred difficulties in the way, and the fighting part is, so far as I am concerned, the least one of all. They now say that the government will surely interfere to prevent us if we attempt to meet again, and, in addition to this, they threaten to prosecute us both for what we have already done. Rather tight on the American people that! as the boys say at home; and, to tell you the truth, I am a little uneasy that they may keep their word.

Under this state of things, I shouldn't much wonder now to see Sayers arrested for the first time; and if that course is taken, and he is bound over in a heavy sum, I shall be told that it is not his fault if he cannot meet me, and the stakes will be drawn, and he will keep the belt, for his term is out some time in June. To become champion after that I should have to wait till a new belt is subscribed for, and then I should have to wait till a new belt is subscribed for, and then I would have to fight for it with plenty of the 100-to-40 fellows around to help me to win it. However, I shall stick to my point as long as I can, and get a new meeting out of Sayers if possible. So, if I do not bring over the belt, nobody shall say that I did not take every fair chance to get it. But I must hold up here, for I have now written the longest letter almost that I ever wrote in my life.

Please give my regards to all my friends, and believe me, Truly yours,

J. C. HEENAN.

P. S.—We will have no speculation in the next fight in the way of railroad trains or three-guinea tickets. There will be merely a party of twenty-five a side, seconds, principals, spectators and all told, and I hope and think that the best man may win.

J. C. H.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—9 P. M.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fenton made an ineffectual effort to call up his bill for the settlement of claims of officers and soldiers of the Revolution and widows and children of the same.

A number of non private bills relative to the relief and care of the recaptured Africans were taken up.

Mr Underwood moved as an amendment that provision be made for the sale of the negroes in Florida, or setting them free in Massachusetts. [Laughter.]

Mr. Davis made some reply and Mr. Underwood responded but what they said was lost in the cries of order and a call for the regular order by Mr. Cobb.

The bill was referred to the Judiciary committee with leave to report at any time.

Adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Hunter, from the Finance Committee reported back the House P. O. appropriation bill with sundry amendments.

Mr Green moved to take up the overland mail contract.

Mr Green said that the object of the P. O. Committee was to establish a permanent mail system, and proceeded to explain the details of the bill.

The Chair called up the special order, it being the private calendar, and it was postponed.

Mr Davis' resolutions were taken up, and Mr Crittenden continued his remarks.

Mr Crittenden took the ground that the resolution contemplated facts not likely to arise, that the Territories were quiet, and no interference was needed to justify the resolutions. We must suppose that the government intends to make war on slavery, which is not likely to be the case. It was no use to bring forward the future, to make issues for the present. He advocated peace. The American party had been wrong, and continued to the virtual irritation. It was not going to tie to the heels of the Democratic party or any other party.

The question was then taken on Mr. Brown's amendment, that intervention was a remedy. Lost. Yeas 25, nays 43.

Mr Thompson offered an amendment to Mr. Crittenden's amendment, to the effect that no intervention by Congress in the Territories ever would be required. The amendment was lost, yeas 18, nays 33.

Mr Crittenden's resolution, that no necessity now exists for the intervention of Congress to protect slave property in the Territories, was adopted.

The fifth resolution was then taken up. It is as follows:

Resolved, That if experience should at any time prove that judicial and executive authority do not possess means to ensure adequate protection to constitutional rights in a territory, and a territorial government should fail or refuse to provide the necessary remedies for this purpose, it will be the duty of Congress to supply such a deficiency.

Mr Brown offered the following as a substitute for the fifth resolution:

Resolved, That a government having already shown that the Constitution and common law, modified by statutory enactment, will not afford adequate and sufficient protection to slave property, some of the Territories having failed and others having refused to pass such enactments, it has become the duty of Congress to interpose and pass such a law as will afford to slave property in Territories that protection that is given to other kinds of property.

Mr. Wigfall opposed the substitute, and said that some how or other the Senator from Miss. (Mr. Brown,) the Senator from N. C., (Mr. Clingman,) pursued a course to embarrass the action of the South, and bolster up the fortunes of the man who had proved proved himself unsound. He would not however question the gentlemen's motives, only to show the effect of their action.

Mr Brown replied to these objections. He did not admit the right of the Senator from Texas to lecture him, and denied any desire to embarrass the action of the party, or any Senator. In reply to the charge that he favored Mr. Douglas, he said he would support the nominee of the Richmond Convention, if he was a sound man on a clear platform, but if a mere series of abstractions were presented, he would then sever his connection with the National Democratic party.

Mr. Wade suggested that the Republicans take no part in the vote on this resolution—it seemed to be a Democratic family affair.

Mr Hale thought Mr. Wigfall did great injustice to northern Democrats, if he supposed the adoption of Mr. Brown's resolution or any other, could embarrass the northern Democracy. They could not stagger the Democratic party in his (Hale's) State, by any resolutions that might be passed at the next State Convention: they would declare that they had always entertained these statements. He complimented Mr. Brown's course as consistent, for if the principles embodied in the resolutions were correct, now was the time for action.

A personal colloquy here ensued between Messrs Hale and Davis, Mr. Brown's substitute, and was lost by 3 votes.

Mr. Brown said the 3 votes were enough to save Sodom.

Mr. Toombs offered an amendment that the action of Congress should be within the limits of Constitutional power. Adopted.

Mr. Trumbull said he had no objection to the resolution as it stood as a mere abstract portion. He offered as an amendment that there is no Constitutional right to take and hold slaves in the Territory. The amendment was rejected. Yeas 17, nays 31.

The fifth resolution was then adopted.—Yeas 35, nays 2. Messrs. Hamlin and Trumbull were the only negatives.

The sixth resolution was then reported as follows:

Resolved, That the inhabitants of a territory of the United States, when they rightfully form a constitution to be admitted as a State, may then for the first time, like the people of a State when forming a new constitution, decide for themselves whether slavery, as a domestic institution, shall be maintained or prohibited within their jurisdiction, and that they shall be received into the Union with or without slavery, as their constitution may prescribe at the time of their admission.

Mr Wilson moved the following substitute:

Resolved, That slavery is against natural rights, and can only exist when it is upheld by local and municipal law, and that the Constitution neither creates, nor establishes, nor authorizes Congress to create or establish slavery, or guarantees the right to any persons to take into or hold slavery in a territory, and that slavery being wrong in itself and prejudicial to the rights of freemen and the interests of free labor, it is the duty of Congress to prevent its extension into the Territories of the U. S.

The substitute was rejected, yeas 9, nays 33.

The resolution was then adopted by yeas 35, nays 12.

The seventh resolution, relative to the fugitive slave law, was taken up, and Mr. Seward said he would vote for the resolution.

Mr. Hale was in favor of carrying out the provisions of the Constitution for the restoration of a fugitive from labor, but was opposed to the provisions of the act of 1850.

A discussion ensued between Mr. Hale and Mr. Mason, as to the merits of the Fugitive Slave law of 1850.

A resolution, offered by Mr. Kennedy, as an amendment to the seventh resolution, was withdrawn.

Mr. Wilson moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution of the Senator from North Carolina was adopted. He had voted for it believing it to be right as far as it went, but he did not wish to be held responsible for any of these resolutions.

The motion to re-consider was carried, and the resolution rejected.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up when the Senate adjourned.

Presidential Election!

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

OF 1860 OPEN!!

Let Every Republican Prepare for the Conflict!!

Circulate Truth among the People!!

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL

Six Months for Less than Cost of Paper and Printing!!!

READ AND BE CONVINCED!

The present campaign is to be a memorable one. The battle will be fought zealously between the friends and the enemies of Freedom, and the ground contested inch by inch. In view of these facts, it is apparent that the dissemination of Republican papers and documents becomes of vast and vital importance. In order to furnish the WEEKLY SENTINEL to the people of the North-West, during the Campaign of 1860, we have concluded to offer the paper, FROM THE 1ST OF JUNE TO THE 1ST OF DECEMBER, at the following unprecedented liberal terms:

|---|---|
| One Copy for | $0 50 |
| Twenty Copies, (to one address) | $9 00 |
| Fifty " " | $20 00 |
| One Hundred do " " | $35 00 |

These terms will barely cover the cost of paper before it is printed; but we have determined to put the price so low that every individual Republican, or organized Club, in this or adjoining States, will use their best endeavors to scatter the SENTINEL broadcast in their particular localities, and thus accomplish more than by the circulation of ten times as many documents in any other form. Every Campaign subscriber will receive the full returns of the election in November.

We need not urge upon our Republican friends the importance of placing this sheet in the hands of all. Let no voter, or family in the State, be without the SENTINEL during the Campaign. Wherever facts are read and the people have access to truth, Republicanism prevails.

Send in your orders as early as possible.

COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

FRIDAY, P. M., May 25, 1860.

Exchange continues growing lighter, and the banks are hard pressed to supply their customers at the current rate. Unless something occurs to create a more active movement of produce it is not improbable that the rate will go up here, as it has at Chicago, to 1¾ ⅜ cent premium. The supply of Currency at the banks is in excess of the business demand.

MONEY MATTERS AT ST. LOUIS.—The St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday, says:

Usually, the deposit accounts at Bank do not show much of an increase until June and July; but this year, some of the institutions report already larger deposit accounts than ever before known. Business men who are generally borrowers, now have considerable deposit accounts, for want of a more favorable investment. Many would gladly make loans of their surplus means, on real estate security. This shows an easing up of the money market, but an unhealthy state of trade. On the other hand, some of the institutions report no increase in deposits, and agents of Eastern capitalists say the demands for long time loans on real estate security have recently been larger—some for purposes of building, and others to pay debts on lift mortgages, &c., the rates paid being 10@11 ⅜ cent ⅜ annum, interest payable semi-annually in advance. This is not a very favorable feature in the money market, and in New York, generally, and if capitalists could secure such interest, it might be beneficial; but it has a tendency to increase the demand for Eastern exchange, and to keep prices of real estate low, in high and unhealthy figure. But evidently money is in high and unhealthy figure. But evidently money is in less demand for business purposes than it was a month ago.

The demands for eastern exchange on some institutions were pretty free to-day, and the selling rate pretty firm at 1¼ prem. On others the demand was but trifling.

We have the following money and stock quotations by telegraph from New York to-day:

| Flour, bbls | 2,830 | Wheat, bus | 34,000 |
| Eggs, bbls | 35 | Hams, bbls | 102 |

Our dispatches from New York to-day, show considerable activity in flour, but do not indicate any change in the market. Wheat is reported firm: sales trifling at $1,92½@1,94 for fair Milwaukee Club, and $1,90 for Chicago spring.

Yesterday's advance in our wheat market was firmly sustained to-day, No. 1 spring selling freely in store at $1,05, and No. 2 at $1,03. Some sales of No. 1 were made at $1,03¾@1,06 early on 'Change, but they were comparatively trifling, and the effort to establish any advance was not successful, the market closing at the inside quotations.

Flour was a shade firmer, but buyers were not disposed to concede to any advance, and the transactions in consequence were unimportant, at $4,90@5,20 for fair to very good spring Extra.

No engagements of vessels reported. The rates asked on wheat are 5c to Buffalo, and 8c to Oswego.

Rates on flour by steam are as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| To Buffalo (nominal) | 25c ⅜ bbl. |
| To New York | 60c do |
| To Oswego | 40c do |
| To Ogdensburgh | 45c do |
| To Boston, (via Ogdensburgh) | 80c do |

CHICAGO MARKET, MAY 24TH.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Flour, bbls | 2,015 |
| Wheat, bus | 10,446 |
| Corn, bus | 102,301 |
| Oats, bus | 6,000 |
| Barley, bus | 250 |
| Rye, bus | 740 |

The Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of Corn to-day were again liberal—upwards of 100,000 bus—and the shipments 75,000 bus. The market at the opening was rather dull and heavy, under the discouraging news by the Pacific and from New York, but owing to a good inquiry for short-delivery as improvement of ½@2c took place—shippers as a general thing holding off. About 100,000 bushels were sold at 40¾@47½c for No. 1 in store; 46¾@50c for No. 2 in store, and 40@45c for Rejected. Wheat opened steady with yesterday's quotations, at which there was an active demand; but after the receipt of the first few days past, considerable activity has prevailed. In that time nearly 1,000 bus have been taken on the range of $1,16@1,20 for red, and $1,20@1,30 for white.

COARSE GRAINS.—Corn remains dull and heavy. Today it is held at but 50c, a decline of ½@2c since yesterday. Oats are in better supply, and in quite active demand at 38c on street. We hear of nothing doing from store. Barley and rye are quiet and unchanged.

POTATOES.—The supply has materially fallen off within a few days. This morning there were buyers at 20c for common, and 30@35c for choice.

BUTTER AND EGGS.—Butter is quite a drug in the market, except for very choice roll. The nominal price for firkin is 9c. Roll sells at 12@14c as to quality. Eggs are plenty at 10c by the lot, though sales have been made at 9½c.

TORONTO MARKET, MAY 23D.—(From the Globe.)—There was a moderate attendance of farmers on the market yesterday; the receipts of grain of all kinds being about 3,500 bus. Wheat was easier, and competition at outside figures less active. The best sample realized once or twice $1,45, but the ordinary figure per good shipping wheat was $1,45—the current rate ranging from that to $1,40. For common and ordinary lots $1,30@1,40 was paid. Spring wheat was in good request at $1,10@1,15, the common rate being $1,13. Oats not very firm at from 32@33c. Peas in good demand with lighter receipts at from 60@63c, the latter being the extreme rate. Barley wanted for local use at 60@65c. Rye dull and nominal at 65@ 70c. Potatoes in fair plentiful at 50@55c. Butter in good supply at 15@18c. Eggs freely offered at 8@10. Poultry 40@50c ⅜ pair. Turkeys 75@90c each. Hay was unsettled, the rates by the Anglo Saxon depressing the views of buyers. In the absence of sales we refrain from making quotations.

LOUISVILLE PROVISION MARKET—May 22.—The market has been somewhat excited and closes firm, the established prices for mess pork being $18. Bacon sides have advanced. The sales of the week have been 2145 bbls mess pork, 1185 casks bacon, and large sales of lard, including 500 kegs on private terms, and 1200 kegs at 11½c. We quote shoulders 7¼c, rib sides 9¾ @10c, clear rib 10½@11c, clear sides 11¾@11¾c, (the inside figures being for canvassing, of which stocks are very light, and those coming in,) plain canvassed and sugar cured hams 11@12c, mess pork $22, rib do $17, fierce lard 11c, and kegs 12c.

WOOL.—The N. Y. Tribune says: The inquiry for domestic has been limited, and confined to the pressing wants of the trade at prices showing no important alteration, though no large parcels can be easily disposed of unless at a reduction, which most holders are reluctant to make; the transactions comprise 100,000 lbs, in lots, at 36@54c for common to full blooded fleece; 55@58 for California do, and 60@64c for inferior to extra country pulled. Foreign has been in good request, with sales of 25,000 lbs washed South American at 35c, 6 months; 350 bales Chilean at about 30c, and 400 do Cape, from second hands, at about 28c, 6 months. We quote:

|---|---|
| American Saxony fleece, ⅜ lb | 58@68 |
| do Full-blooded Merino | 50@54 |
| do ¾ and ⅞ blood Merino | 44@47 |
| do Native and ½ blood Merino | 36@40 |

DETROIT MARKET, May 23D.—(From the Advertiser.)—Wheat—Strongly exciting downward. A cargo of 11,000 bus No. 1 red wheat was offered to-day at $1,27, without takers. No. 1 white is held at $1,28. On the street for two days past, considerable activity has prevailed. In that time nearly 1,000 bus have been taken on the range of $1,16@1,20 for red, and $1,20@ 1,30 for white.

COARSE GRAINS.—Corn remains dull and heavy. Today it is held at but 50c, a decline of ½@2c since yesterday. Oats are in better supply, and in quite active demand at 38c on street. We hear of nothing doing from store. Barley and rye are quiet and unchanged.

POTATOES.—The supply has materially fallen off within a few days. This morning there were buyers at 20c for common, and 30@35c for choice.

BUTTER AND EGGS.—Butter is quite a drug in the market, except for very choice roll. The nominal price for firkin is 9c. Roll sells at 12@14c as to quality. Eggs are plenty at 10c by the lot, though sales have been made at 9½c.

CINCINNATI MARKET, MAY 24TH.—The Gazette of Thursday morning, has the following report of the market:

There was a pretty general decline of about 10c ⅜ bbl in Flour to-day, and for the lower grades it is rather difficult to give reliable quotations. Superfine cannot be quoted at over $5,10, and it was rumored that a sale was made as low as $5,00. Low extra sold down to $5,15, and we quote it at $5,15@5,55; fair extra, $5,20@5,75; family, 5,85@5,90, and fancy $6 @6,10. Wheat declined 2c ⅜ bus, and closed dull at $1,25 for prime red; $1,30 for no white, and $1,10 for spring, making a decline from the highest point of full 10c ⅜ bus. Corn closed dull and heavy at 46c for car, and oats dragged at 36c.

The provision trade was comparatively tame, but holders were generally firm at full prices. Buyers, encouraged by this stance, are disposed to hold back, anticipating a decline. There was a limited demand for city packed mess pork, which was met freely at $17. 50. Bulk shoulders brought 6¼, loose and 6¾ packed, and sales of 120 hhds bacon shoulders, not smoked, first rate, sold at 7¾; best class brands could not be moved for less than 7¾. Bacon sides were held at 9¾, with some inquiry at 9½ for good lots. There were buyers for lots of sides as low as 8¾ for medium and 9c were freely bid, but holders asked ¼ to ½ more. Lard firm at 10¾@11c for barrel and 11¾ for keg. The Grocery trade exhibited no new feature. Whiskey steady at 18c.

ST. LOUIS MARKET, MAY 22.—(From the Democrat.)

FLOUR.—We heard of no large transactions. Sales in the small way of 200 bbls city superfine at $4,45@5, 47½ delivered; 250 bgs city superfine at $2,50; 50 bgs double extra at $2,70; 57 bgs do at $2,65; 200 bgs city superfine MR, at $2,40; 200 bgs do at $2,45; 300 bags country fine at $2,20.

WHEAT.—Market firm and unchanged. Sales of 851 sks club at $1,13@1,13½; 370 sacks do at $1,14; 2,185 sks prime and choice club at $1,15; 178 sks club and full mixed at $1,16; 70 sks fall at $1,20; 550 sks fair to good white at $1,21@1,25; 75 sks good do at $1,26; 86 sks prime red at $1,35; and 1,000 sks prime club private terms.

CORN.—The market was lively at an average decline of 2c ⅜ bus. Sales of 219 sks Minnesota at 54c; 1,065 sks nor burn mixed at 52@56c; 250 do mixed at 57½ @58c; 1,400 sks do at 58c delivered; 420 sks yellow at 57@59c; 135 sacks do at 58c delivered; 1,850 sacks choice yellow at 59c; 550 sks yellow and white mixed at 58c; 1,000 sks mixed and white and common white at 58@ 59c; 166 sks white at 60½c; 800 sks mixed white at 61c; 2,784 sks white at 62@63c; 642 sks white at 64c delivered, and 1,000 sks p. t.

OATS.—Market firm and lower; sales of 2,037 sacks in lots, at 42c; 705 sks in lots, at 43½; 210 sks at 43½; and 650 sks in lots, at 44c.

BARLEY.—Sale 340 sacks indifferent spring at 65c, exclusive of sks.

PROVISIONS.—The only sales were 500 lbs bulk meat, packed in salt, at 6¾c for shoulders, 8¾c for hams, and 8¾c for sides; 5 sacks county bacon clear sides at 10½c; 4 casks do at 10½c; 4 casks hams at 8¾c, and 2 10½c; 4 casks do at 10½c; 4 casks hams at 8¾c, and 2 casks shoulders at 7¾c. A sale of 400 tres lard, yesterday afternoon, was on p. t.

TOLEDO MARKET, MAY 24TH.—The Commercial of this morning says:

The Fremont, O., Journal says:

There is beginning to be some stir in the wool market of this country. Buyers are on the alert, inquiring whenever they can, and prices range pretty fair. We learn that several of our best wool growers in Scipio township have already engaged their corn crop at 50 cents. The clip of this country amounted to about 900,000 lbs.
